ExG

ONE DAY IN CHIANG RAI

Explore more of Northern Thailand and see what makes Lanna Kingdom so unique!

Discover the breathtaking creation of Wat Rong Khun, commonly known as the White Temple, where modernity and tradition meet in a unique way. Relax with a cup of local tea in an Akha hill tribe village, surrounded by lush green tea plantations, followed by a delicious lunch. Take a step back into history with a visit to Wat Phrakaew, where the Emerald Buddha was first discovered. This particular Buddha statue is now enshrined at the famous Wat Phrakaew in Bangkok.

Itinerary:

- Pick up at hotel and drive 3 hours to Chiang Rai – transportation by van
- Visit the famous White Temple (Wat Rong Khun)
- Visit Akha hill tribe village tea plantation
- Lunch at local restaurant
- Visit historical Wat Phrakaew
- Drive 3 hours back to Chiang Mai and return to your hotel

Kindly inform us in advance if you have any dietary allergies or preferences (such as vegetarian or vegan)
Insurance is provided for the duration of the tour

Duration: 7:00 am – 4:00 pm

Included: English speaking guide, Insurance, All entrance fees and Lunch

NOT Included: Breakfast or dinner

What to Wear: You must dress appropriately to visit temples:
Both men and women must cover shoulders and knees
Slip-on shoes are easiest for take on/off at each temple